Assessment Notice.
CHARM MINING & MILLING COMPANY, a corporation, Principal place of business, Salt Lake City, Utah.—Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the board of directors held March 17, 1908, an assessment of one cent (1c) per share, was levied on the capital stock of the company, payable on or before April 21, 1908.

Dr. Fred W. Little, secretary and treasurer of the company at his office, which is the office of Little & Little, real estate agents, Salt Lake City, Utah. Any stock upon which this assessment may remain unpaid on April 21, 1908, will be delinquent immediately thereafter, and will be advertised for sale at public auction, and, unless payment is made before, will be sold on May 13, 1908, at 12 o'clock noon, at said office, to pay the delinquent assessment, together with the cost of advertising and expenses of sale.

FRED W. LITTLE, Secretary and Treasurer.
Real estate office of Little & Little, Salt Lake City, Utah.
Dated March 18, 1908.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES.
William Butterworth and Burton F. Peck yesterday filed a petition in the probate division of the district court asking that W. P. Kiser be appointed administrator of the estate left by Charles H. Deere in Salt Lake county. Deere was the millionaire plow manufacturer who died in Chicago October 28, 1907. He owned property here valued at $100,000, of which he derived an income of $5,000 a year.

Mrs. Eliza J. Gidney yesterday started proceedings against John Giles for an accounting of their partnership business. East Garfield, Mrs. Gidney says they have been engaged in the live stock and poultry business since February 27, 1907, and she has always been refused an accounting.

The petit jury for the April term of court was drawn yesterday, forty names being drawn by Judges Armstrong and Ritchie and forty by Judge Lewis.

Homier J. Wick yesterday petitioned the probate division of the district court yesterday that he be appointed administrator of the estate of William Melvin Rich, who died March 17, 1908. The estate is valued at $6,196 and there are seven heirs.

Judge Armstrong yesterday ordered that no information should be filed against Sullivan, charged with attempted burglary. The case came from the juvenile court and the district attorney stated that there was not sufficient evidence to convict.

Judge Armstrong yesterday entered an order dissolving the Taylorsville Co-Op order Mercantile association. The application was made by W. H. Haigh, its president.

Judge Lewis yesterday entered a non-suit in the action for $15,000 damages brought by William Dixon against the Utah Railway company. The case was placed on trial before him Thursday, and a special jury panel had been drawn to try the case. The non-suit was granted on motion of the railroad attorney after the plaintiff's evidence had been introduced. The judge holding that a sufficient cause of action had not been shown.
